A project of this magnitude is, of necessity, the product of many ideas and hands. We would like to acknowledge the creative and financial support of Queens Borough President Helen Marshall and Theresa Osborne, Director, Culture and Tourism in the office of the Borough President.

We sincerely appreciate the cooperation and support we have received from the following institutions, without whom this project would have been impossible:

The Bowne House Historical Society
Rosemary S. Vietor, President of the Board of Trustees
Donna Cartelli, Executive Director

The Museum of the City of New York
Franny Kent, Director of the Frederick A.O. Schwarz Children's Center
E.Y Zipris, Professional Development Coordinator
Melanie Bower, Collections Access Manager

The New York Historical Society
Adrienne Kupper, Vice President of Education:

The Queens Historical Society
Jim Driscoll, President

The Queens Museum of Art
Tom Finkelppearl, Executive Director
Lauren Schloss, Director of Education

The Queensborough Public Library
Thomas W. Galante, Library Director
Judith Tolman, Manager at the Long Island Division
John Hyslop, Assistant Division Manager

We are indebted to Alex Stein and the United States Department of Education for their cooperation, financial support and encouragement through the Teaching American History Grants

Credit for leadership in the development and administration of this project belongs to John-Paul Bianchi, former Regional Instructional Specialist for Region 4 and Gus Hatzidimitriou, former Regional Instructional Specialist for Region 3. Review and modifications of this document were meticulously completed by retired New York City teachers and administrators; Robert Dytell and John Rooney. Editing were completed by Matthew Corallo, SS Instructional Specialist and Amber Najmi-Shadid, ELA Instructional Specialist. Major revisions and editing were completed by Arthur Green and Steven Wolfson consultants to the project.

The curriculum was researched and written by a group of gifted New York City Public School teachers who exhibited a sense of professionalism and dedication second to none. We thank them for their tireless efforts over a period of weeks and months.
